Dear Andressa,

Thank you for your support of Coral Restoration Foundation™. Every donation we receive goes directly towards restoring and protecting coral reefs around the world. This is a receipt for your records.

CRF™ is the world's largest non-profit marine conservation organization dedicated to restoring coral reefs. We are rebuilding resiliency – focusing on restoring and reconnecting genetically diverse populations of corals and recreating acres of functional habitat that has the ability to survive in an increasingly unpredictable world.

In 2021 alone, we returned over 30,000 threatened staghorn, elkhorn, and boulder corals to reefs throughout the Florida Keys and our large-scale restoration will continue in the years ahead.

To stay informed on the latest CRF™ news and to find other ways to get involved, consider signing up for our newsletter, Coral Chronicles, at www.coralrestoration.org.

Built upon decades of front-line experience, CRF™ is demonstrating what large-scale, ecologically relevant coral restoration can achieve. Our work in the Florida Keys is providing the solutions and proof needed to restore coral reefs around the world.

Thank you again for your generosity!

Sincerely,
Martha Roesler
Chief Development Officer
